Words from the Prez

The 2006 flying season is almost over, very few warm days and calm days left. Looking forward to the 2007 flying season.

Out with the old and in with the new! Elections this year were a close one. I beat myself for the running for President, Pat Henson had to bribe himself for Vice President and Jim Danforth had to fight for his life to keep the Treasurer office. So many people wanted to be secretary. Todd Guttschow has stepped up to take the office. We did not want to hurt anyone's feelings. Thank you very much for Mike Wilson to take over the Newsletter Editor position. Andy Cogswell did a fantastic job as the editor. Thanks Andy.

The SIRS Annual Awards Banquet is weeks away. If there is someone that deserves a honorable mention or award for something done that was done for the SIRS club in 2006 please let me know. Is there a funny story that needs to be told? If so, please contact Tom Kirk at 309-261-6893.

I look forward to serving the SIRS club in 2007 as it's President. It will give me one more year to practice my leadership. This will help me in my campaign for Presidency of the US. I look forward to another year of great flying and new stories. Lets keep it safe and simple and we will all have a lot of fun.

Tom Kirk
President
